and it has been measurably successful.

Right upon the thresheld of this senatorial campaign in Virginia we have some—I cannot yet say how many—cases of shameful prostitu-tion. I am prepared here with the proofs. The facts of one case, briefly recited, are that a certain newspaper possible exception of that which flourished during the Mahone dynasty." In a few days the columns of that paper articles were paid for, but there was no mark to indicate the fact. I sent to the newspaper in question the for-mal announcement of my candidacy ginta papers had printed as current news. It not only rejected the matter print it as an advertisement at full

That he has been touched by the op-position to him was made apparent by the answers which he made to all accosations. He defended his position in advocacy of Mr. Flood (whom also he did not call by name) for the senatorship, and referred to the alleged efforts to lobby for the appointment before Senator Daniel died; in fact, six months before he was taken Ill. He also covered the financial condition of the State at the beginning and the end of the Swanson administration. adducing little that was new in this

Mr. Fulton's Remarks,

M. J. Fulton presided, ile said he believed that for more than twenty years there had been one-man political power in Virginia. No one, he preceeded, believes there is equal oppor-tunity in this State. If one wants an office, he must not only go to Washington, but must go to one man there, The Czar must be consulted, he said. Not an election for a county office or power, and the aspirant must bend the dollars suppliant knee. "Talk about buying votes." he said, "he who peddles an office is equally amenable to the law as if he bought votes and corrupted the John Garland Pollard introduced Mr. Glass. He had noted there were some people who did not believe there was a machine in Virginia polities. This might, he suggested, be due to the that It does not operate in day-It was patented, he continued, 1898, and had been in successful misses.

was laid up for repairs.

Mentions Snunders.

"If there is no machine," said Mr.
Pollard, "explain the mysterious influence of Trehy in Norfolk and of Clyde Saunders in Richmond. What solution have these men ever presented to any public question? What have they done to qualify themselves to be the companions of Governors and Sena-

Commenting on the joint work of on the proposition that there is no machine, Mr. Pollard opined there is none so blind as he who will not see, As to those who say that the machine would be succeeded by another, Mr. Pollard commented that this was akin to the argument that it is of no use to wash one's hands to-day, for they would be soiled again to-morrow. Mr. Glass's Speech.

the recent remarkable attempt have taken the oath of office. to twist my personal partiality for a friend into some sort of alllance on my part with the political machine, the attempt has been made to block

"Berry's For Clothes'

Don't let the weather man fool you-cheaper to prepare

Here are rubber "slipons" low as Five dollars and Spring a district office, but that influence was represented by the bear from the one-man employed by the control of t shoulders.

New Spring, Chesty Suits, cut in "English style" Americantized—$20 to $28.

They make the first as an advertisement at full rates. It would print the cards of candidates for sheriff or clerk or county treasurer, but it could not print the fact that a representative in Congress was a candidate for the United States.

They make last year's suit look like an antique!

Keep tab on our daily ad. Everything men and boys wear and spring Reefers and Wash Suits for girls and

Trunks, Bags and Cases, too-

tion, I proffered my earnest support. Judge Mann. Mr. Pollard marveled at But they and others urged me to stand the fabulous majority for the "apos- for the office; and, against personal inde of temperance" in whiskey-soaked clination, at the sacrince of individual Norfolk and Norfolk county. In fact, case and peace, I have determined to

What an opportunity there was for the Governor of Virginia when John Daniel's life went out! The remain-ing Senator was and is the undisputed leader of the incumbent faction of the Democratic party. If there is no ma-chine; if there is no inexorable facof cannot say lind I am here to-might plant of the third States Senate. So candidate for the proposal control of the proposal tional control; if those Democrats who Mr. Glass received a good deal of do not own servile allegiance to the applause when he arose. He said in "party organization" are not persishelpless 500 miles away from home. It was on this occasion that a valiant colonel of the Governor's staff caves-dropped, and make haste to illustrate his fidelity to the tribe" by reporting to a high State official the private conversation, he had overheard helps a conversation by avowed candidates for Congress versation he had overheard helps a conversation by avowed candidates for Congress versation. versation he had overheard between two years before my present term ex-two gentlemen, from which incident pires, and some weeks before I will

Newspaper Sold Out.

More than that, and worse by far,

A CABLE AD EVERY DAY

Workmen by Score of 17 to 4.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch,] Reanoke, Va., March 31.—The first game of the season was played here this afternoon when the loculs met the second team of the Philadelphi Nationals, and went down in defeat to the tune of 17 to 4. The weather was extremely cold, and was not conductive to good ball, or the comfort of the crowd. The Phillies secured sixteen hits, during the nine innings. in this State, for years bitterly hos-tile to the political machine, recently expressed views entirely favorable to the anti-machine campaign in Virginia and characterized the "ring" as the "corruptest and most outrageous that ever disgraced Virginia, with the possible excention of that which thour-Who Know

Are here at the service of pianoowners. They know just what to do, and the factory way of doing it. They are piano-builders, and, therefore will rouder you copert were filled with articles defending and advocating the very cabal which the paper had previously condemned. The therefore, will render you expert service in repairing your piano. The Cable Factory Repair Department is fully equipped with every necessary appliance to furnish good work at most reasonable prices.

Attendance is Small.

Pensacola, Fla., March 31.—There was no interference by persons opposed to betting at the opening to-day of the fifteen-day race meet, but the attendance was small. The betting was light, due to the recent agitation against the race meet.

Phone Mad. 2734

county treasurer, but it could not print the fact that a representative in Congress was a candidate for the United States Senate:

Subsequently the same paper reprinted as a paid advertisement a mendacious attack apper mer from a machine organ which has for months and itself a medium of falsehood; and civerling rates the answer came been sold to the other side, and they cannot put in anything relative to the United States senatorial canvass except!"—from my competitor:

Subsidy of Press.

Talk about subsidizing special interestial and harmful or so full of decelf as subsidy of the press. I do not know who is doing this shameful thing. I state the facts and let you myself I do declare that I would not vote for myself I do declare that I would not only be distasted the paper, who may not more received in the Same and I would not wote for myself I do declare that I would not only be distasted that a would not wote in the superione. But for myself I do declare that I would not only be distasted that in the Senate of the United States subsidy for press.

Wants to Meet Swanson.

I was to Meet Swanson.

In all my experience: I have never this a gentlema, who not only purchases, spaced present the superior qualifies competitor a hearing! Not only purchases the privilege of disparaging and anti-machine candidate for public office, but buys the right to deny the man thus maligned an opportunity to resent the aspersion!

My fellow-cilizens, I was born in the newspaper business. I love my profession. There is no political distinction that the earth can affort in his presence, and not in his absence, in the interest of the control of the superior of the superior of wantom of the paper of the public paper of the paper of the public office, but buys the right to deny the paper of the public office, but buys the right to deny the paper of the public office, but buys the right to deny the public public office, but buys the right to deny the public pub

GIFT TO MUSEUM

HAS NOTHING TO SAY

CHARTERS ISSUED

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., March 31.—Miss Elvira Alice Jones, thirty-four years old, for five years society reporter for the Roanoke Times, and who was formerly engaged in newspaper work here, died early to-day in a local hospital of typhoid pneumonia, having been ill two weeks. Her death was not unexpected.

OBITUARY

Miss Elvira Jones.

FIRST GAME AT ROANOKE.

by Score of 17 to 4.

Wanted in Nelson County.

She was a member of Court Street Methodist Church here and was identified with one of the best known families of Lynchburg.

Miss Jones was a sister of Mrs. E. M. Heard, Miss Marce Jones, Robert W., Jesse Jones, Mrs. Harold Carlock and Miss Ethel Jones, of Lynchburg; Fred and Edmund, of Radford, and Joseph Jones, of Louisville, Ky.

Captain Jesse O. Wiggs. Captain Jesse O. Wiggs.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—Following months of poor health and a stroke of paralysis, suffered last Saturday, Captain Jesse Oliver Wiggs passed away Wednesday afternoon, Captain Wiggs was in the sixty-first year of his age. He had been in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line for thirty-five years, and was highly esticemed.

teemed.

He was a member of Brooklyn Baptist Church, and was a charter member of the Hanover Lodge, No. 145, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of this city. He was also a member of Stonewall Lodge, No. 1, Knights of Pythias. Pythias.
He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Min-

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie J. Wiggs, and seven children—Mrs. W. R. Middleton, Misses Cora Inez. Bertha Lily, Mrs. LeRoy C. Le-Gwin, all of this city; James Oliver Wiggs, Esq., an attorney of Norfolk, Va.; Henry Arnold Wiggs, an engineer of New Bern, and Dr. Leslie B. Wiggs, of Richmond, Va.; also one brother, Mr. Isaac Wiggs, of Norfolk, Va., and one sister, Mrs. Mary E. Wolf, of Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. Ethel T. Gaines. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Lynchburg, Va. March 31.—Mrs. Ethel Thornhill Gaines, wife of G. Towns Gaines and daughter of Mayor Smith, died last night after three months' illness. She was thirty-three

SYRUPOFFIGS LLIXIR OF SENNA

Cleanses the System effectually; Dispels colds and Headaches. due to constipation.

Best for men, women and children: young and old.

lo get its Beneficial effects, always note the name of the Company, CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP (O. plainly printed on the front of every package of the Genuine

ABOUT JONES'S SPEECH Mary Garden ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch. 1 Washington, D. C., March 31.—Those who expected a joint debate between Congressman William A. Jones and Senator Thomas S. Martin are doomed to disappointment, and unless the Senator changes his mind he will attend to his duties in Congress and pay little attention to what Mr. Jones may say during the campaign this summer. Immum, $5,000. Objects: Barrel business. State Brokerage Company (Inc.), Rosslyn, Va. II. L. White, president, Wheeling, W. Va.; G. E. Hawkins, secretary; J. W. Lewis, vice-president, both of Washington, D. C. Capital: Maximum, $5,000; minimum, $1,000. Objects: Brokerage Company (Inc.), of the Presbyterian Company (Inc.), of Richmond Compa

Knabe Piano

to disappointment, and unless the Senator changes his mind he will attend strictly to his duttes in Congress, and pay little attention to what Mr. Jones may say during the campaign this aumner.

Last night, when Senator Martin stated that he would not enter into a joint debate with Mr. Jones, and that he had nothing to say regarding the latter's Norfolk speech, his also said litter's Norfolk speech, his a

CHARTERS ISSUED The following charters were issued yesterday by the State Corporation Commission: The II rham and Danville Railroad Company, Manville, Va. Gilbert C. White, president; J. L. Morchead, secretary and treasurer; W. F. Carr, G. C. White, W. B. Guthrie, C. MeD. Carr, J. F. Willy-all of Durcham, N. C., and M. K. Harris, of Danville, Va. Capital: Maximum, $5,609; minimum, $2,000. Objects: To build and operate a railroad. The Colored Educational Association of Smithfield and Vicinity, Smithfield, Va. W. M. Dey and Willie Crawley-all of Smithfield, Va. Objects: An association to promote the educational interests of the colored race. Lawman Bakery (Inc.), Alexandria, Va. William Lawman, president; Harry Bosley, vice-president; C. R. Luce, treasurer; C. C. Weeks, secretary-all of Washington, D. C. Capital: Maximum, $5,600; minimum, $1,600. Objects: Operate a bakery; Fulton Wood-Working Company (Inc.), Richmond, P. L. Conquest, Jr., president; N. W. Hubard, treasurer, both of Richmond, P. L. Conquest, Jr., president; N. W. Hubard, treasurer, both of Richmond, P. L. Conquest, Jr., president; N. W. Hubard, treasurer, both of Richmond, P. L. Conquest, Jr., president; N. W. Hubard, treasurer, both of Richmond, P. D. Mason, president; A. Mayo, Vice-president; A. Mayo, Vice-president; A. Mayo, Vice-president; A. G. Daiton, secretary and treasurer—all of the conduction of Richmond, P. D. Mason, president; A. Mayo, Vice-president; A. G. Daiton, secretary and treasurer—all of the conduction of Richmond, Capital; Maximum, $15,600; minimum, $1000. Richmond, Capital; Maximum, $15,600; minimu Electrical Shoe Shine 5c

A T. GRAY

CIGAR COMPANY'S STORE, 836 E. Main Street.

Feel Stronger and Better Gentlemen: I think your "Milam" is a more active and able to stand up under my work, my digestion has improved and my cysight seems to have shared in the general improvement.

(REV.) H. D. GUERRANT. Danville, Va., Aug. 23, 1910.

Successful Advertisers depend on the advice and service of trained experts. Our agency furnishes these. Correspondence solicited. Free or patent; in button or lace; with scallops and perforation. Fit the foot snugly; give the height of comfort. Look them over. $4 to $6 every where Lewis A. Crossett, Inc., Maker ) North Abington, Mass. Walk

Freeman Advertising Agency, Mutual Building. Richmond. - Virginia.

"Young Man" Styles

-Smart and Snappy

All sorts of stylish shapes in the new

Crossetts. Models in gun metal, black, tan

JACOBS & LEVY, Sole Agents for Richmond. 705 East Broad Street.

She leaves two young daughters. John S. Terrill.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., March 31.—John Terrill, a well known citizen of Stafcarrill, a well known citizen of Stafford county, died here to-day at the Mary Washington Hospitel, after a long illness, aged fifty-six years. He came here from Missouri eight years ago. Five children, five brothers and two sisters survive him.

Funeral of Ernest Vaughan. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Walkerton, Va., March 39.—The burial of Ernest Vaughan, who was accidentally killed at the Locomotive Works last Monday morning, took place at Providence M. E. Church Wednesday morning. A large crowd was in attendance, showing the esteem in which the young man was held.

M. C. Steffy.

the young man was held.

M. C. Steffy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Wytheville, Va., March 21.—M. C. Steffy, better known as "The Banner Man." owner and editor of the Rural Retreat Times, died at his home this morning of pheumonia. Mr. Steffy was a writer of force. He is survived by his wife.

Mrs. Rosa A. Brewer.

Mrs. Rosa A. Brewer.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winchester, Va., March 31.—Mrs.

Rosa A. Brewer, widow of Benjamin Brewer, died of tuberculosis at her home, near Mount Williams, Frederick county, this morning, aged sixty-three years. Two sons and one daughter survive.

Mrs. Frances N. Ghiselin,
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winchester, Va., March 31.—Mrs.
Frances N. Ghiselin, wife of Rev.
Charlos Ghiselin, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Shepherdstown, Jefferson county, West Virginia, died late last night at the Winchester Memorial Hospital, where she had been under treatment since last fall.

She was born fifty years ago at

DEATHS

DREELIN.—Died, at the residence of her niece, Mrs. R. Evans, 716 Brook Avenue, at 11:30 o'clock Thursday, March 30, 1911, MRS. MARY DREELIN, widow of Michael Dreelin, of the county of Kilkenny, Ireland. She is survived by two children, Andrew M. Dreelin and Mrs. Mary Shanks.
Funeral from Sacred Heart Cathedral SATURDAY MORNING at 10:30 o'clock.

LEE.—Died, March 30, 1911, at 9:36 P.
/M., ALFRED P. LEE, in the fiftyfourth year of his age.
Funeral at the grave at Maury
Cemetery SATURDAY, April 1, at 11
A. M. Friends and acquaintances are invited.

ANDERSON.—Died, Thursday, March 30. at 6 P. M., at the residence of her son, Julian C. Anderson, 718 Miller Avenue, Barton Heights, SALLIE E. ANDERSON, wife of Richard Anderson, in the seventy-seventh year of her age. She is survived by her husband, three sons, W. M., Richard M., and Julian C. Anderson, and one sister, Mrs. Mary E. Davis, of Mathews county, Va.

Funeral from the residence To-MORROW (Saturday) AFTERNOON at 4:30 o'clock.

GENTRY.—Died, March 31, 1911, at the residence of his parents, JOHN CHRISTIAN GENTRY, only son of Thomas Christian and Edna McCartney Gentry, aged two years and five months.

Funeral from the residence, 462 South Laurel Street, SATURDAY AFTERNOON at 4 o'clock, Friends invited to attend. Interment, Riverview Cemetery, private.

VAUGHAN.—Died, at 7:30 A. M. Friday, March 31st, 1911, JOHN J. VAUGHAN, brother of the late A. Jeff Vaughan, Funeral from the residence of his nlece, Mrs. I. A. Beaver, 320 North Twenty-sixth, at 1:30 P. M. SUNDAY. Friends invited to attend. Interment in Blandford Cemetery, Petersburg. Special car will leave Seventh and Perry Streets at 2:30 P. M. Friends wishing to accompany remains invited.

IN MEMORIAM

McGEORGE.-In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, LELIA POWELL McGEORGE, who died one year ago to-day.

Dearest mamma, thou hast left me, And my loss I deeply feel,. But 'tis God who has bereft me, He can all my sorrows heal.

How I miss your gentle footsteps, And I miss your dear sweet face Darling mamma, oh, I miss you In every place. HER LOVING DAUGHTER.

Rockbridge Baths, and was a daughter of the late Dr. Morrison, of that place, Her husband, two sons, and several sisters survive. The remains were taken to Shepherdstown for interment

Butter Nut

The Bread of Quality. NOLDE BROS.

MEN FOR YOUR PROTECTION

Buy Burrojaps Shoe F. W. DABNEY & CO., Third and Broad

> Drink Panacea Mineral Spring Water

Every bottle, cork and cap sterilized OWENS & MINOR DRUG CO., Richmond, Va.

Direct Action GAS RANGES. The Great Gas Savers.

Sold only by RYAN, SMITH & CO.

Factory Clearance Sale NOW ON Rountree Trunk Store, 703 East Broad

W. Fred. Richardson's Storage and Transfer Department,

Main and Belvidere Sts. Hauling, Packing and Storing High-Grade Household Goods, Phones: Madison $43, day; Monros $42, night.

"Lucca Olive Oil"

IN EVERY ANTRY WHERE

PURITY PREVAILS.

CHASIE TRAFIERI, Importer Mad. 4220. 500 West Main St

Jurgens

Special midwinter prices for re upholstering parlor suites. You can pay us in weekly or monthly installments.

THE ONLY BEST GAS RANGE,

The New Process Sold only by Jones Brothers & Co., 1418-1420 East Main Street,

Strictly Full Measure Ask Your Dealer

"Pompeian" is the purest, best, most delicious Olive Oil in the market for salads, dressings and general uses.

The Pompeian Company, Washington, D. C.

Represent the finished accomplishment of artistic ideas.

For sale at our agencies everywhere.

